JASON ISAACS

Jason started his music career as a self-taught saxophonist more than 15 years ago in the bars and cafes of his native Newcastle. After a 2 year stint in Spain he returned to the Northeast in 2003 and has since gone from strength to strength. Having starred in the hugely successful Swing Fever shows at Newcastle City Hall, he went on to appear in the first of his own sell-out big band shows at the Journal Tyne Theatre in 2006, before becoming a regular at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival.

If you haven't already seen Jason in action you're in for a treat. With a refreshingly energetic take on the old classics, Jason swings with cheeky charisma and terrific stage presence. Don't miss out !
